THE CARRABBA'S STORY

Like many Texas families, our ancestors immigrated to the United States, ours from the small farming town of Corleone in Sicily. When they arrived in the late 1890s they brought with them a trunk full of hopes, dreams and recipes that had been passed down for generations. The recipes were simple, but full of flavor. And like most Italians who harvested the land, they took great pride in preparing their dishes with the freshest of ingredients.

Our love of cooking came naturally as we were raised in the kitchens of our mothers and grandmothers in South Texas. It was with these special family recipes and our commitment to fresh ingredients and true Italian hospitality that we opened our first Carrabba’s in Houston in 1986.

To this day, we still prepare each dish by hand and take pride in sourcing the finest ingredients from around the world; such as pasta from a small town near Pompeii and marsala wine made by the Lombardo family in Sicily.

Food is, and always has been, an important part of our lives and nothing makes us happier than to share this passion with you.

“We welcome you to Carrabba’s, buon appetito.”
- Johnny Carrabba & Damian Mandola, Founders
