OUR WOOD-FIRED GRILL STORY

Grilling over an open fire has been a part of authentic Italian cooking for centuries. At Carrabba's, we use the high heat of a 550-degree wood-fired grill fueled by natural hardwood logs, such as oak or pecan. Subtle smoke from the grill is combined with Carrabba family patriarch "Mr. C's" secret grill seasoning and basting techniques to produce tender meats and seafood with unmatched flavor. Try them today with our signature, made-from-scratch toppings like Bryan or Marsala sauce.
